NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

As you realize, we are now in the month of November. The month of November is dedicated to the Poor Souls in Purgatory. The Church in the month of November asks us to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory. Let us remember each and every day during the month of November to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory, especially, all of our loved ones and those most forgotten. Father DiMaria and I will remember all the souls of your departed loved ones that you have requested in your All SOULS envelopes in our prayers and Masses. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them! May their souls and all the souls of the faithfully departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

We have received special permission this year in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to allow Christmas Vigil Mass to start at 2 PM. Therefore, our Christmas Vigil Masses will be at 2 PM, 4 PM, 6 PM, and 8 PM. Our Christmas Day Masses will be at 7:30 AM, 9 AM, and 11 AM. We will also have overflow "places" where the Mass will be live streamed and Holy Communion will be distributed. More details and information will be given later.

Beginning this month you will be able to pick up a Church Bulletin after the Sunday Masses. We will also place them in the Chapel. We have a Holy Water Receptacle/Dispenser in the Church and one in the Chapel. You would be able to fill up your Holy Water bottle and take some home, if you wish. Soon we will be reintroducing Holy Water to our Fonts. We will soon be placing Missalettes in the Church. We have been informed that this is permissible via the Archdiocese which has been in consultation with the Pennsylvania health guidelines as well as the CDC. The coronavirus passes from person-to-person.

As you may not have realized, Father DiMaria and I have been filling in at a parish for their weekend Confessions and Masses as well as most of their daily Masses, etc. over the last two months. We may also be doing this for the next month or so due to the pastor being on a health/ medical leave. Let us continue to pray for more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

Our Mass of Remembrance this year will be at 9 AM in the Church on November 2. We will especially remember all those who have died over this last year as well as all of those who have died over the 101 years of this parish.

May God, through the intercession of Saint Helena, bless us!

Love & prayers,

Msgr. Nicolo

Madeleine's Message

All Saints Day

From the first centuries after Christ, Christians who died a martyr's death were considered saints, who live in God's presence forever. Every year, on the anniversary of the martyrs' deaths, Christians would visit their tombs and celebrate the Eucharist. This practice grew throughout the centuries to include remembering other outstanding Christians on the days they died. Soon the entire calendar was filled with memorials of the saints. In the ninth century, Pope Gregory IV designated November 1 as the day to remember all the saints living in God's presence. PREP talked about All Saints Day last week.

Have a great week!

Madeleine Fitzgerald

BEATIFICATION of VENERABLE FATHER MICHAEL J. MCGIVNEY

FOUNDER OF KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

BEATIFICATION MASS:

Saturday, October 31 at 11:00 AM at Saint Joseph Cathedral in Hartford, CT.

(EWTN TV coverage starts at 10 AM)

Father McGivney's prescient vision empowered the laity to serve the Church and neighbor in a new way. The Knights of Columbus is one of the largest Catholic organizations in the world with 2 million members worldwide. Father McGivney inspired generations of Catholic men to roll up their sleeves and put their faith into action.

SAINTS OF OUR SANCTUARY MURALS

Next in our procession of Saints in the sanctuary murals, we come upon Saint Paul Yun Jichung whose feast is celebrated on September 20 along with his fellow Martyrs of Korea.

YUN JI-CHUNG PAUL (1759–1791)Yun Ji-chung Paul, the first Cho-sun martyr killed for his Catholic faith, was born in 1759 to a noble family in Jinsan, namely, Jeolla-do. Yun Ji-heon Francis, who was martyred during the later Shinyu Persecution of 1801, was his younger brother.

In 1783, Yun passed the first state examination and learned about Catholicism for the first time through his cousin Jung Yak Yong John. After being baptized in 1787, he preached the Catholic doctrine to his mother, younger brother, and cousin Kwon Sang Yeon James. He also kept in touch with Yoo Hang Geom Augustine to keep up mission work.

In 1791, Bishop Gouvea of Beijing ordered a ban on traditional ancestral rites within his diocese. Yun Ji Chung and Kwon Sang Yeon, in accordance with the Church's commands, set their families ancestral tablets on fire. Chung's mother died the following year. She requested to receive a Catholic funeral which her son duly provided for her. These actions angered the Korean royal family.

News of Yun's actions led to dispute in the royal court. In the end, Jeongjo backed the Noron faction push to oppress Catholicism and ordered the arrest of both Yun and Kwon.

The governor of Jinsan went to Yun's house in search of the family's ancestral plates. Instead, he discovered the absence of the family's ancestral plates. At the time, the pair were in hiding. Upon hearing that Yuns's uncle had been taken into custody they handed themselves into the local authorities.

In the face of calls to renounce their Catholic faith, the pair refused. The governor judged that getting them to abandon their religion was beyond him. They were sent to a government building in Jeonju. The pair continued to refuse apostasy despite interrogation and cruel torture. An official report on the situation was delivered to the royal court. Opinion within the court was in favour of the death penalty. Jeongjo supported this view and ordered their execution. On December 8, 1791, Yun and Kwon were both beheaded. This episode of martyrdom in Korea is referred to as the 'Jinsan incident'.
