NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

On August 18th, we celebrated our Patronal Feast Day with a special mass in honor of Saint Helena at 9 AM in the Chapel. This past weekend August 21 and 22nd we celebrated our Patronal Feast Day by celebrating the Mass in honor of Saint Helena and by having hospitality. You probably noticed the Consecration Candles in the Church were lit for all the weekend Masses. They are only lit for the Patronal Feast Day and the Anniversary of the Consecration of the Church.

This past week our school faculty had two in-service days. They have already been preparing their classrooms for the last two weeks to be able to welcome the children back. Over the last 2 ½ months our maintenance crew/staff have been working very diligently repairing, fixing, replacing, painting many different areas and things in the school. A very lot of time, effort, and tender loving care have gone into getting everything “just so” for when our children return shortly to school.

Our Task Force has been and will continue to meet regularly monitoring everything that needs to be monitored to make sure that our children and staff are safe. There is nothing more important for us than the health, safety and well-being of our children and staff. We will do whatever is necessary to ensure that our children have wonderful in-person classes. Our Task Force did a phenomenal job all of last year in keeping our school not only open, but safe. I’m sure the same will be true of this year.

I ask you to mark your calendars for the opening of our Parish Forty Hours Services. Our Forty Hours Devotions will begin on Sunday, October 24 with the 11:00 AM Mass, and continue on Monday, October 25, and will end on Tuesday, October 26, with the 7:00 PM Devotions. Each evening, we will have Evening Prayer, Homily, Benediction at 7:00 PM. At the Closing Devotions on Tuesday evening, we will also have a Procession. FATHER LAWRENCE KOZAK WILL BE OUR GUEST HOMILIST.

Mark you calendars now! We will be celebrating our Parish’s Anniversary on the weekend of October 30 and October 31. We will be celebrating OUR HUNDRETH AND SECOND ANNIVERSARY! We truly have much for which to thank God. Let us continue to thank Him by living lives in imitation of His Divine Son.

Soon we will be welcoming back the children who attend St. Helena School as well as the children who attend Saint Helena PREP. Let us pray for our children as we begin the new Academic Year.

Our parish picnic on Tuesday evening August 24th was a wonderful celebration our Patroness, Saint Helena. It was such a great success and I am very grateful to our parish Knights of Columbus Council for their sponsorship of the picnic. I also want to thank all those who took the time to arrange “the venue” for us to enjoy. Everyone is already looking forward to next summer’s picnic.

May God, through the intercession of Saint Helena, bless us!

*Love & prayers
Monsignor Nicolò*

WATCH: SAINT JOSEPH, OUR SPIRITUAL FATHER

While the Gospel has not preserved any of his words, his actions have resounded through the ages. Joseph of Nazareth stands out as the model par excellence of Christian virtue, a brilliant example of obedience to God and trust in Divine Providence.

Now, in this Year of Saint Joseph, The Knights Supreme Council has crafted a video “SAINT JOSEPH: OUR SPIRITUAL FATHER” which provides viewers with a glimpse into one of the most incredible lives in all of human history — a figure whose spiritual fatherhood remains open to all of us.

Watch this video trailer at YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZZQSQ1iZB6s>

The full video will air on ABC affiliates across the United States beginning October 10.

CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY: FEED THE HUNGRY, CLOTHE THE NAKED.

As we begin a new year and say good bye to the past, we may start to think of things we let slip away. As a Parish Family, we support many of our neighbors, now is the time to make sure that we've not forgotten them!

THE BROTHER HOUSE

One of the missions of The Brother House is to clothe the homeless. You, the parishioners of Saint Helena, help to make this happen by donating to this cause. At this time, they are in need of slightly used backpacks and duffel bags. They are always in need of newly purchased men's underwear, socks, and slightly used clothing. We have a cabinet in the Information Room of the Church for these items.

THE PATRICIAN SOCIETY

The Patrician Society is a food bank in East Norriton that we help to keep stocked with the non-perishable food that our children and several parishioners bring to Church each week. We also have several Food Collections throughout the year as well as our Annual Manna Bag Collection in May. If you can help, please bring your non-perishable items to Church on the weekend or to daily Mass and leave them in the Information Room. A representative from The Patrician Society usually comes in on Monday mornings to pick up our donations.

CARING FOR FRIENDS

This ministry asks you to cook a fresh meal or to take your left-overs and put them in the containers provided. Bring them to the Church and place them in the freezer in the Information Room. The meal containers are in the cabinet next to the freezer. We have dinner containers and soup containers available together with instructions on how to prepare the meals. Please remember to date your dinners.

KEN'S CACHE

The little community of reformed Benedictines at Cîteaux grew rapidly. Three years after entering, Bernard was sent with a group of twelve monks to found a new house at Vallée d'Absinthe, in the Diocese of Langres. This Bernard named Claire Vallée, or Clairvaux, on 25 June 1115, and the names of Bernard and Clairvaux soon became inseparable. During the absence of the Bishop of Langres, Bernard was blessed as abbot by William of Champagne, Bishop of Châlons-sur-Marne. From then on a strong friendship grew between the abbot and the bishop, who was professor of theology at Notre Dame of Paris and the founder of Saint Victor Abbey in Paris.

The beginnings of Clairvaux Abbey were austere; Bernard soon became ill. Nonetheless, candidates for the monastic life flocked to it in great numbers. Even his father and all his brothers entered Cîteaux, leaving only Humbeline, his sister, in the secular world. She, with the consent of her husband, later took the veil in the Benedictine nunnery of July-les-Nonnains. Gerard of Clairvaux, Bernard's older brother, became the cellarer of Cîteaux. Clairvaux soon started founding new communities. In 1118, Trois-Fontaines Abbey was founded in the diocese of Châlons; in 1119 Fontenay Abbey in the Diocese of Autun; and in 1121 Foigny Abbey near Vervins.

In addition to his successes, Bernard also had his trials. During an absence from Clairvaux, the Grand Prior of the Abbey of Cluny went to Clairvaux and enticed away Bernard's cousin, Robert of Châtillon. This was the occasion of the longest and most emotional of Bernard's letters.

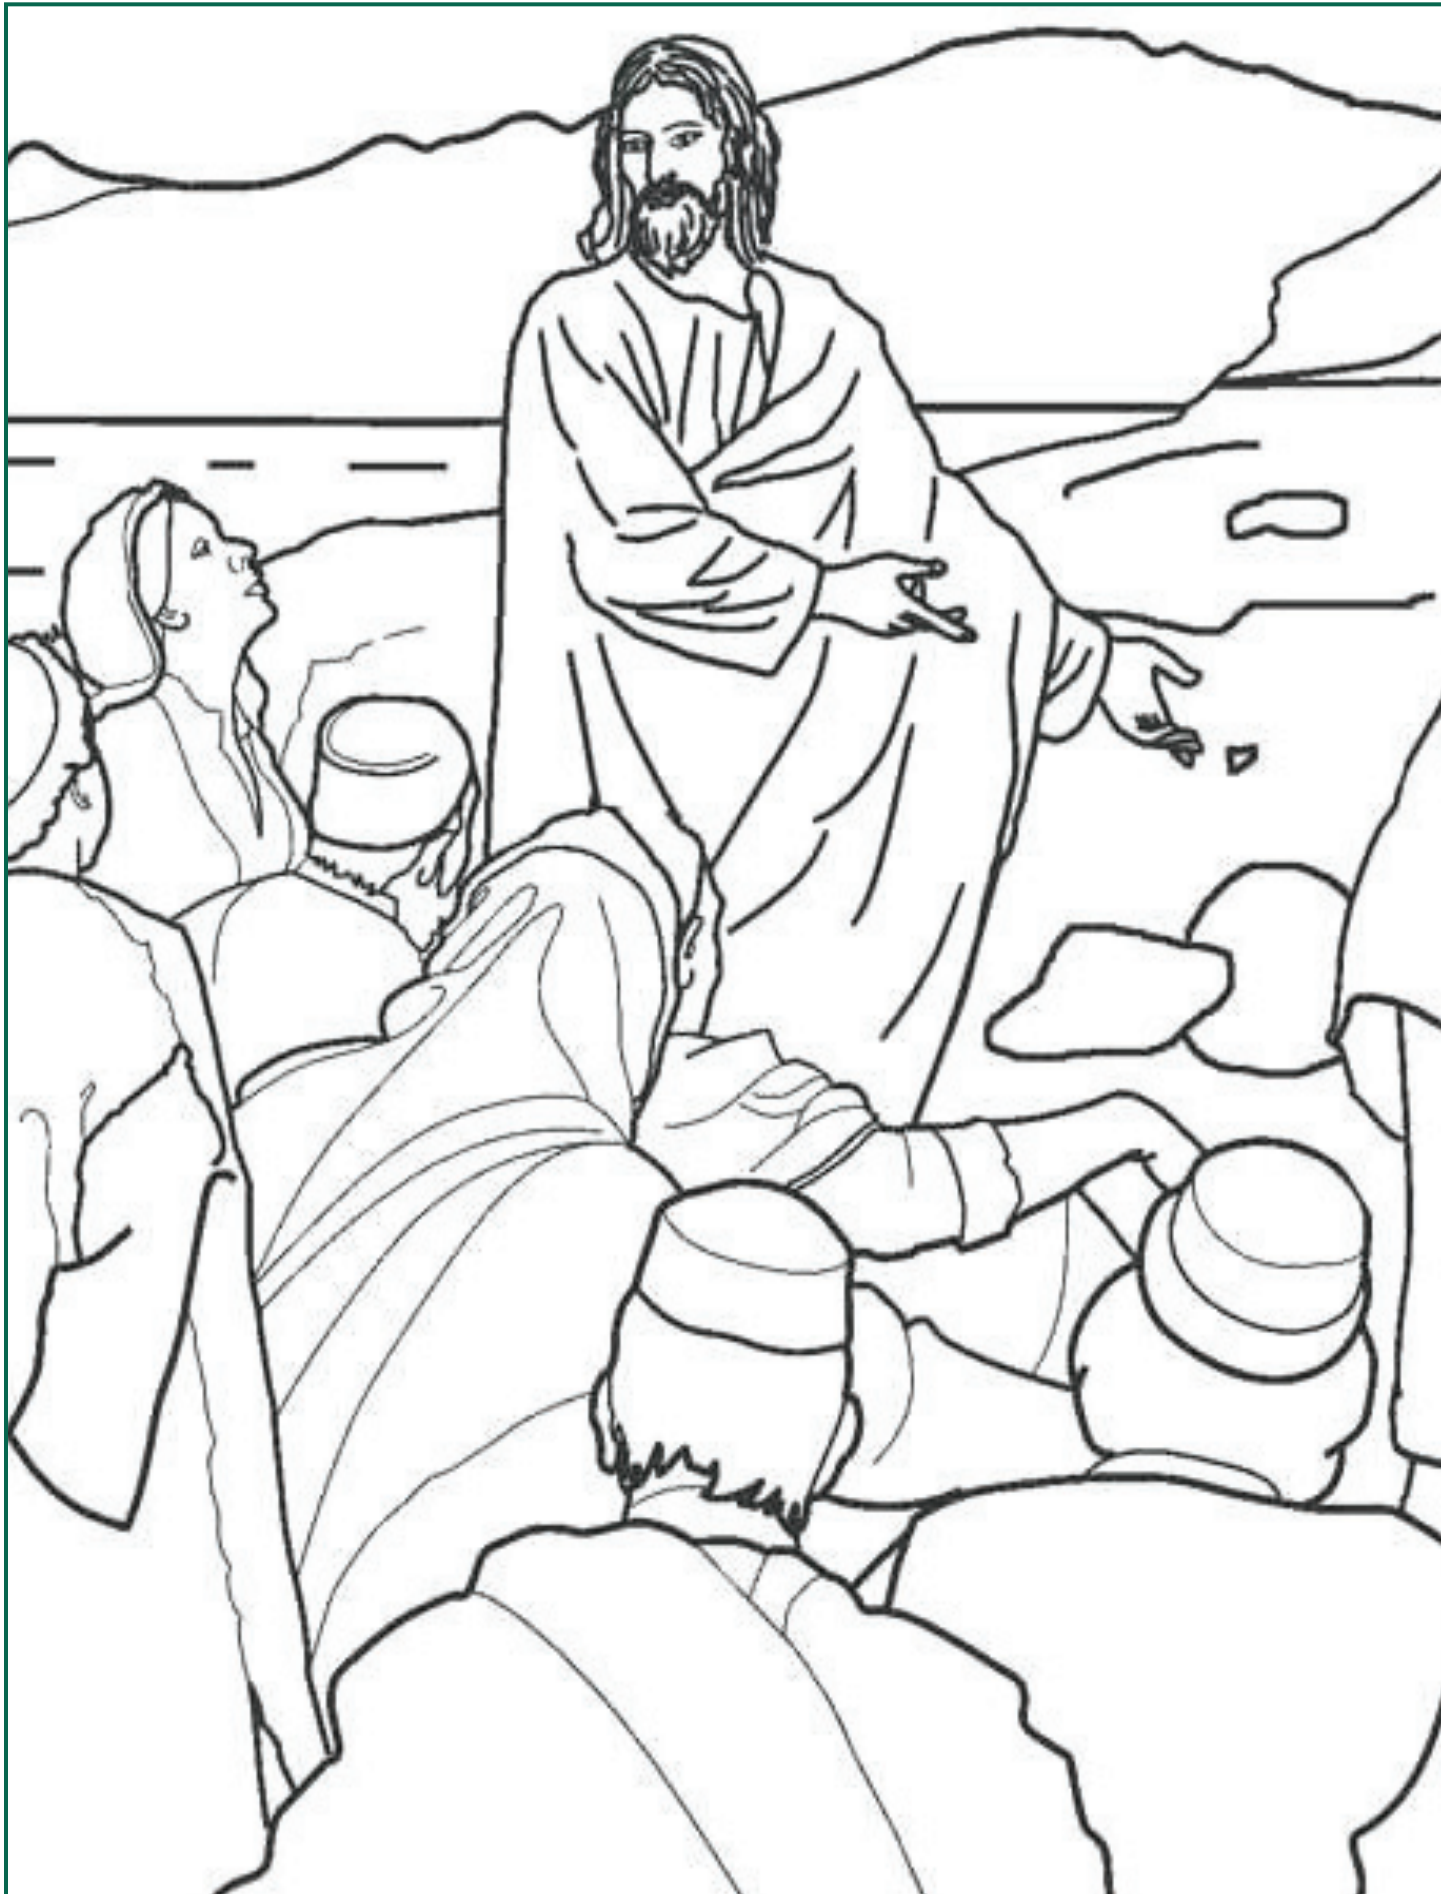

THE ABBEY
OF CLUNY AS IT WOULD HAVE LOOKED IN SAINT
BERNARD'S TIME

The monks of the powerful Benedictine abbey of Cluny were unhappy to see Cîteaux take the lead role among the monastic orders. They criticized the Cistercian way of life. At the solicitation of William of St.-Thierry, Bernard defended the Cistercians with his Apology. Peter the Venerable, abbot of Cluny, answered Bernard and assured him of his admiration and friendship. In the meantime, Cluny launched a reform and Abbot Suger, the minister of King Louis VI of France, was converted by Bernard's Apology.

God bless!

Deacon Ken
