NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

We are ambassadors for St. Helena Parish. Just having Ministers of Hospitality (Greeters) to do the greeting for us is not enough. We must think of all the "boundaries" that are produced even before people get to the church door. Visitors are usually met first by a parish's reputation, what they hear through the neighborhood grapevine before they even approach the front courtyard. Visitors may meet parishioners even before they come to St. Helena. How we talk about our experiences at the Church can also open the door for them or close it. So, we need to understand that, as regular parishioners, we are ambassadors for St. Helena Church and the way we speak about our experiences here should be inviting others.

What can we do to be more welcoming?

Pray. The Holy Spirit calls each of us in our own way to welcome new people into our church. Whether they have just moved into the parish, or are returning after many years away, we should pray that the Holy Spirit will help them find their place among us.

Envision. Take time to reflect on what you would like to see our parish become. How would you encourage active membership? Do you see yourself taking part in a ministry or program?

Listen. As you come into Church, look around you, listen to what people are saying and asking. Does someone close by look bewildered, lost? Speak with them or simply smile and nod your head hello. Be aware of your fellow worshipers.

Commit. Don't leave all the work or the financial burden to others. There is no such thing as a gift that is too small. Everything you give will build up our parish community if it is given honestly and sincerely.

Believe. Each one of us is a gift worthy of salvation. St. Helena Church is not our private prayer palace. It belongs to everyone, even those who have not joined us yet! Let us be lavish in our expression of welcome. Then maybe we will be seen as a home where people will want to come, and stay.

A church building reflects the worship of the people. When people approach our Church in person, they are informed about the parish by what they see. A church building reflects how the people who worship there think about God and themselves. Things like landscaping, signage, shrines, and lighting can speak volumes of who we are and how welcoming we can be. The décor, the vestments, the furnishings, and even the cleanliness to create a worship space that not only glorifies God, but invites others to join us.

Stop and think like you are a first time visitor to our Church. What do you experience? Do you know which door to enter? Was anybody there to help you when you came inside? How do you decide where to sit? Does it feel welcoming, inviting? Sometimes, because we are regular parishioners, we do not even see where necessary "boundaries" become walls instead of bridges. So remember, anything that calls upon inside knowledge blocks welcome.

Next weekend, throats will be blessed after all Masses

May God, through the intercession of St. Helena, bless us.

Love and Prayers,
Msgr. Nicolo

Catholic Schools Week Service Project
Operation Captain Underpants
Helping Out Haiti

On Monday, January 29, St. Helena School will be doing its part to HELP OUT HAITI! As you know, the people of Haiti have suffered tremendously as a result of catastrophic weather and extreme POVERTY! Sister Cathe has communicated with a physician who volunteers in Haiti three to four times a year. There is a tremendous need for children's underpants! We take so very much for granted. For us, underpants are a simple necessity, for the children of Haiti, underpants are sheer luxury!

Donations of children's underpants (undershirts are not needed) will be grate-fully accepted at the school office throughout Catholic Schools week (Jan. 28 - Feb 3)

Thank you so very much!

MADELEINE'S MESSAGE

Through prayer we can draw closer to God, get answers to our questions and find comfort.

Anyone can pray - anywhere and at any time. Whether we're kneeling, sitting or standing, praying out loud or silently, praying in groups or by ourselves, God will hear and answer us. Prayer is so easy and so simple we might not appreciate what a privilege it is. It is a direct line of communication with our Heavenly Father who wants to help us with all of our problems and questions. Though He may not always answer right away or in a way we expect, we believe the Scriptures when they say, —Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.‖ (Matthew 7:7)

We are commanded to pray often because the more we speak with God; the more He'll be able to guide us through the difficulties we face. This is a perfect example of how the blessings of the commandment far outweigh the effort they require.

Saint Helena Fourth grade PREP is learning the Ten Commandments under the direction of Bill Bogle and Gertrude Lyons. They are now on the Fourth Commandment, Honor your Father and your Mother.

Have a great week!

KEN'S CACHE

Sitting here in the cold of January, a warm thought might be the joy of planting your marigolds. You'll be guaranteed a wonderful showy flower until the frost hits next fall. You'll also have a flower that serves practical as well as aesthetic purposes, for the marigold deters certain animals, like the rabbit, and fends off nematodes, microscopic plant pests that strike tender plants and shoots – which is why the marigold is commonly used as a border plant. The pot marigold was even used at one time as a medicinal poultice, being applied to wounds.

Why all the talk in a series like this about the marigold? Because the marigold is another everyday word in the vocabulary with a hidden or lost religious association. The word evokes Mary, the mother of God. Marigold in nothing more than a simples compounding of the words "Mary's gold," just as Maryland, the state, results from a fusing of the words "Mary's land."

In the 1950's, Illinois' Senator Everett Dirksen pressed in Congress to have the marigold declared the national flower of the United States. There was no religious inspiration behind the attempt; Dirksen was not a Marianist, let alone a Catholic. He just liked the flower. His effort went nowhere, but it was a strange cause to undertake in the first place. The marigold isn't native to the United States, as one might expect a national flower to be.

The marigold species known in the United States are several, and have been grown in gardens of the land for some four hundred years. They originate, however, in the tropics of Mexico and Central America. Similarly, in Europe. The marigold flowers profusely there, but it was brought to the area by crusaders returning from the Middle East. They found the flower there, and were so captivated by its beauty and golden color that they named it for the Virgin; hence, Mary's gold. The flower would be bred into a number of colors, including red and orange, but it is still yellow that predominates and dazzles – Mary's gold.

God Bless! Deacon Ken

Journey to Joy: Friendship with God

Jesus tells us, I have called you friends, in John 15:15.

Women often describe their friendships as reciprocal, comforting, loving, challenging, trusting, surprising, joyful, intimate and deep. Are these words that you would use to describe your friendship with God? Do you desire to experience your relationship with God in these ways? We invite you to a day of prayer and reflection for women on Saturday, February 10th from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM in the Social & Recreation Center. The day will be directed by Carol Jensen and Pam Seymour who are trained Ignatian spiritual companions. Lunch, refreshments and printed materials will be provided. The cost is $40.00. Registration is required.

Please contact Carol at cjensen@spiritualdirectors.net or at 610-513-1545 before February 3rd to register or for more information. You are most welcome to invite friends. All women are most welcome.

Parish Giving

Do you tithe electronically?

Thank you very much to your continuing support of our Parish! Please remember the importance of placing your empty envelope in the collection basket each weekend. Simply check the electronic donation box and write "empty" on the amount line. Mass attendance is recorded by our Parish and the only means of we have of knowing how often parishioners come to Mass is through the use of envelopes. Should you ever be asked to be a sponsor for Confirmation or a godparent for Baptism, your eligibility is based on the fact that you are registered in a parish and are a practicing Catholic.

If you are considering electronic tithing, it is very simple. Check the "Parish Giving" link on our website www.sainthelena-centersquare.net to set up an account for regular contributions. You are able to set up any giving schedule that works for you.

Would you like to remember Saint Helena in your will?

Ask your attorney to include such words as these in your will:

"I give, devise, or bequeath to Saint Helena Church, 1489 DeKalb Pike, Blue Bell, PA 19422, for its general purposes all, (or state a fraction or percentage) of the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, whether real or personal."

OR

"I give to Saint Helena Church, 1489 DeKalb Pike, Blue Bell, PA 19422 ($X..00) to be used for the general purposes of Saint Helena Parish."

Have you heard the saying, "The devil made me do it"? In today's Gospel, the evil spirit (the devil) really was making the man do wrong. When we are thinking of doing something wrong, that same devil is at work in us. Jesus made the devil leave the man. Do you know how to get help from Jesus when the devil is inside you? Find the answer by figuring out what letter of the alphabet each of these clues represents. Some clues are pictures and some are words. But each stands for only one letter . Sound out each clue and write the letter on the space below it.
