NIC NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

At the present time I am on a pilgrimage to Fatima and the Catholic shrines of Spain with our parish trip. I am very sorry that I am not able to be with you at this time of great sorrow in the Church of Pennsylvania.

As you know, the Pennsylvania Attorney General released a Grand Jury Report on Tuesday, August 14, 2018. This report details the abusive behaviors committed by more than 300 Catholic priests across the State of Pennsylvania (the Philadelphia Archdiocese and Altoona -Johnstown Diocese were not included because of a previous Grand Jury Report).

I express my personal sorrow to you over the Grand Jury Findings and express my own apology to the victims and the survivors of these horrendous and hideous crimes/ sins. It is my prayer that God brings healing to the victims and justice to the perpetrators.

The report also details how Church Leaders failed to respond in appropriate ways. More needs to be done by the Church and more will be done. Archbishop Charles Chaput has made a statement that is on CatholicPhilly.com.

I know that there is a great deal of healing needed in all of our lives. I ask you to pray to God for the healing and the peace of soul which only He can give.

I realize that this report and its scope deeply impacts victims and our community at large. There are free and confidential resources for those victims identified within the report, for parishioners in need of assistance with processing the report, as well as the community in general who may need guidance in talking through the emotional toll. The following entities are free and confidential for anyone who is in need of guidance or assistance. Information will not be shared between agencies.

For those seeking rape/sexual assault counseling: 888-772-7227

For those seeking resources within the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and for information on resources available in other Pennsylvania dioceses: 888-800-8780

For those seeking community crisis response assistance: 215-343-0543. As the partnership between these three entities continues, ongoing resources will be developed and shared throughout Pennsylvania.

You remain in my prayers. I pray in a special way for all those who have been affected by this tragedy.

May God through the intercession of St. Helena pray for us!

Love and Prayers, Msgr. Nicolo

St. Paul reminds us that "The Days Are Evil." We were reminded this week that this Evil also has a residence in the Church. As priests, we at St Helena are deeply sorry, ashamed, disgusted, sad and embarrassed that some of our Brethren would abuse their positions and children entrusted to their Care. The pain is made deeper by the fact those entrusted with the authority to stop such abuse did not act, and in fact at times seemed to have no concern for the injured. Our pain is nothing as compared to the pain of those victimized. Often they were victimized by the priest and then victimized again by the failure of individual bishops to act. As your priests, we can only promise each and every one of you our Renewed commitment to live out our lives committed to Jesus Christ and the Church's teaching as handed on by the Apostles and the Fathers of the Church. Pray for us that our response to this scandal is a deeper dependence on our Lord, a holier life and a commitment to prayer and sacrifice.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has many supports for those victimized as minors. On the website for the Archdiocese, you will find a dedicated page to Child and Youth Protection. The Archdiocese mandates that anyone who deals with children, our children, must be cleared by the FBI through fingerprinting and a thorough background check. The diocese also has pledged to give assistance to those who have been abused as will as their families. There is also mandatory training sessions for those who work with youth on boundary issues on an array of topics. One can contact this office with any complaint at 215-587-3880 or e-mail at philavac@archphila.org

Any complaint that is filed is immediately addressed by the Office for Investigations, the head of which is a retired Philadelphia police officer. The Archdiocese has adopted a comprehensive network for preventing and removing anyone guilty of sexual abuse.

Again, we bring this to your attention with great sadness and disgust in our hearts. We trust that the Lord will assist us, the priests of St. Helena to a holy life, which is the only authentic transparency. We are sorry for those scandalized and harmed by some of our own members, and pledge to you that we will strive to be worthy administrators of the mysteries of faith.

If you wish to speak to one of the priests about this matter, we are always available to you. You can always make an appointment through the rectory Monday to Friday.

St. Helena Pray for Us.

Msgr. Nicolo

SAVE THE DATE
Active Shooter Presentation

On Wednesday, September 19, 2018, there will be an Active Shooter Presentation from 7 PM to 9 PM in the Social and Recreation Center. This presentation is designed to prepare individuals in the event they are involved in an active shooter situation.

The Presentation will be discussing the different mental strategies, as well as response tactics. Individuals will be better prepared to not only ACT but REACT during an active shooter event. The discussion covers associated behaviors, thoughts, and feelings, which may be indicators that someone is disgruntled at their job, in their personal life, or with society. Triggering events that may cause individuals to become an active shooter are also discussed. Active shooter states, trends, real incidents are discussed, along with why it is vitally important for individuals to have a plan. Audio and video clips will be utilized to get everyone into the mindset of what may occur during an active shooter situation, and try to realistically have them feel involved.

Please contact Theresa Smith if you are planning on attending the presentation at theresacsmith@verizon.net or 215-646-7636.

KEN'S CACHE

We believe and attest that in the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven, meets His children with great love and speaks with them; and the force and power in the word of God is so great that it stands as the support and energy of the Church, the strength of faith for her sons, the food of the soul, the pure and everlasting source of everlasting life. So the Church unceasingly receives and offers to the faithful the bread of life from the table both of God's word and of Christ's body.

On Thursday, September 13th, we will begin our 16th year of Scripture Study here at St. Helena Parish. The class will run until December 20th. A class schedule will be given our the first night. The class runs from 7 to 8:30pm. Our subject this fall will be the Catholic Letters, the 7 last books of the New Testament. These letters, unlike those of Paul, were directed to a particular local church with several exceptions. As an aid in reviewing this window into the early church, we will also be looking at the Didache and the Apostolic Constitutions.

Finally, I want to take this opportunity to thank Pat and Jim Pinciotti for all their contributions to the growth of this study. You leave with our prayers for your continued growth in the Lord.

God Bless You!

Deacon Ken

St. Helena is pleased to announce that the Knights of Columbus has now made it easier to join their Fraternal Order.

The Knights of Columbus is the largest organization of Catholic men in the world. It has helped countless families through its insurance program and has contributed time, energy and financial support to people in need around the world.

For more information, please contact Dexter De La Rosa at dexter.delarosa@kofc.org or 917-941-5381.

Parish Giving

Do you tithe electronically?

Thank you very much to your continuing support of our Parish! Please remember the importance of placing your empty envelope in the collection basket each weekend. Simply check the electronic donation box and write "empty" on the amount line. Mass attendance is recorded by our Parish and the only means we have of knowing how often parishioners come to Mass is through the use of envelopes. Should you ever be asked to be a sponsor for Confirmation or a godparent for Baptism, your eligibility is based on the fact that you are registered in a parish and are a practicing Catholic.

If you are considering electronic tithing, it is very simple. Check the "Parish Giving" link on our web-site www.sainthelena-centersquare.net to set up an account for regular contributions. You are able to set up any giving schedule that works for you.

Visit the Church & Chapel Live

Go to the Parish Website and on the Homepage select Church Live or Chapel Live on the right hand side of the page.

THE GROTTO

The Pergola is nearing completion. It is being built at the Our Lady of Lourdes Grotto and will incorporate several of the stained-glass windows from the original Church. It will also include a set of wooden Stations of the Cross from the Convent Chapel.
